Ecma				ed	Various general editorial improvements should be made to the text.	See the set of proposed changes in the attached redline document under the author "General".	2014-03-04 WG4 meeting in Berlin, DE. Agreed.
Ecma				ed	There is inconsistent use of whitespace between words and sentences.	Use regular (nonbreaking) spaces and a consistent number of them between words and sentences. See the set of proposed changes in the attached redline document under the author "Spacing".	2014-03-04 WG4 meeting in Berlin, DE. Agreed.
Ecma				ed	There is inconsistent indentation of XML fragments.	Make the indentation of XML fragments consistent. See the set of proposed changes in the attached redline document under the author "XML Formatting".	2014-03-04 WG4 meeting in Berlin, DE. Agreed.
Ecma				ge	The document can be made easier to read by moving examples of edge cases out of the main subclauses defining the MCE elements and attributes.	Move some examples from the main subclauses to Annex A. See the set of proposed changes in the attached redline document under the author "Examples".	2014-03-04 WG4 meeting in Berlin, DE. Agreed.
Ecma		7.2		ed	A statement that namespaces are declared as ignorable is not scoped to specific elements.	Add a clarifying clause to the last sentence of the first example in subclause 7.2. See the set of proposed changes in the attached redline document under the author "Examples".	2014-03-04 WG4 meeting in Berlin, DE. Agreed.
Ecma		8		ed	There is a typographical error referring to a non-existent element.	In the paragraph following the first example in clause 8, replace references to "foo" with "extensionElement". See the set of proposed changes in the attached redline document under the author "Examples".	2014-03-04 WG4 meeting in Berlin, DE. Agreed.
